The UCSD Emeriti Association Book Club presents

The Grid: The Fraying Wires between Americans and Our Energy Future” by Gretchen Bakke, Ph.D.

Monday, March 25, 2019 ∞ 11:30 AM—1:00 PM
at the Ida & Cecil Green Faculty Club Small Conference Room

Please register at https://hrweb.ucsd.edu/ea/ or call (858) 534-4724, if you have no online access.

Join other Emeriti Association book enthusiasts as we discuss Gretchen Bakke’s book, The Grid: The Fraying Wires between Americans and Our Energy Future. Humorous and informative, Bakke’s novel tells the story of how the United States ended up with the electrical grid. The story of our grid charts our status as a country with infinite technological prowess to a country built on unstable infrastructure. The book humorously analyzes various solutions to the grid’s instability. Be sure to RSVP today!