Do you have 10-15 hours a month to help change a child’s life? Become a CASA! Voices for Children, a non-profit organization contracted with San Diego Community Health and Human Services, transforms the lives of abused children in San Diego County by providing them with volunteer Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASAs). CASA volunteers work one-on-one with a foster child or sibling group, trained to advocate on their behalf in the courtroom, classroom, and community.

In this information panel, Amanda Chavez, Incoming Chair of the UCSD Staff Association, Mark Appelbaum, Vice President of the UCSD Emeriti Association, and Rich Belmontez, President of the UCSD Retirement Association, will explain the CASA application process, share information gleaned from the introductory CASA Academy, and discuss what inspired them to seek out this particular volunteering opportunity. There will be a representative from Voices for Children who will provide introductory information and materials, as well as a Q&A session.
